AARHUS
UNIVERSITY

AARHUS INSTITUTE OF ADVANCED STUDIES

WHO CAN APPLY

Talented researchers from around the world with at least two years of fulltime postdoctoral research experience can apply for an AIAS-COFUND fellowship. You can choose your research topic freely within all academic areas, and must comply with the following mobility demands to be eligible:

- Incoming fellowships: Open for all nationalities. At the time of application deadline, applicants shall not have resided or carried out their main activity (work, studies etc.) in Denmark for more than 12 months in the 3 years immediately prior to the application deadline.
- Reintegration fellowships: Open for European researchers returning to Denmark/the EU from a country outside the European Union. At the time of the deadline, applicants shall not have resided or carried out their main activity (work, studies etc.) in Denmark for more than 12 months in the 3 years immediately prior to the application deadline.

ABOUT AIAS

The mission of the Aarhus Institute of Advanced Studies is to advance highest quality research at Aarhus University by attracting talented, highly qualified fellows worldwide and within all disciplines. An AIAS fellowship offers excellent researchers a unique opportunity and the freedom to pursue their own scientific research in an inspiring international multidisciplinary environment.

WHAT YOU CAN APPLY FOR

You can apply for two types of fellowships within any scientific field within the frames of Aarhus University:

- AIAS-COFUND Junior Fellowships (a duration of 12 to 36 months): postdoctoral research careers of 2-10 years.
- AIAS-COFUND Senior Fellowships (a duration of 6 to 18 months): postdoctoral research careers of +10 years.

HOW AND WHEN TO APPLY

Fellowships are announced annually in early November at www.aias.au.dk where you will find guidelines, information about the calls and how to submit your application online. Application deadline is expected in February.

WHY APPLY

As an AIAS-COFUND fellow you are given freedom and independence to develop your own ideas with access to excellent facilities. You will have the possibility of engaging in multidisciplinary exchanges and collaborations that provides you with the opportunity to gain new skills and seek new perspectives on your research.

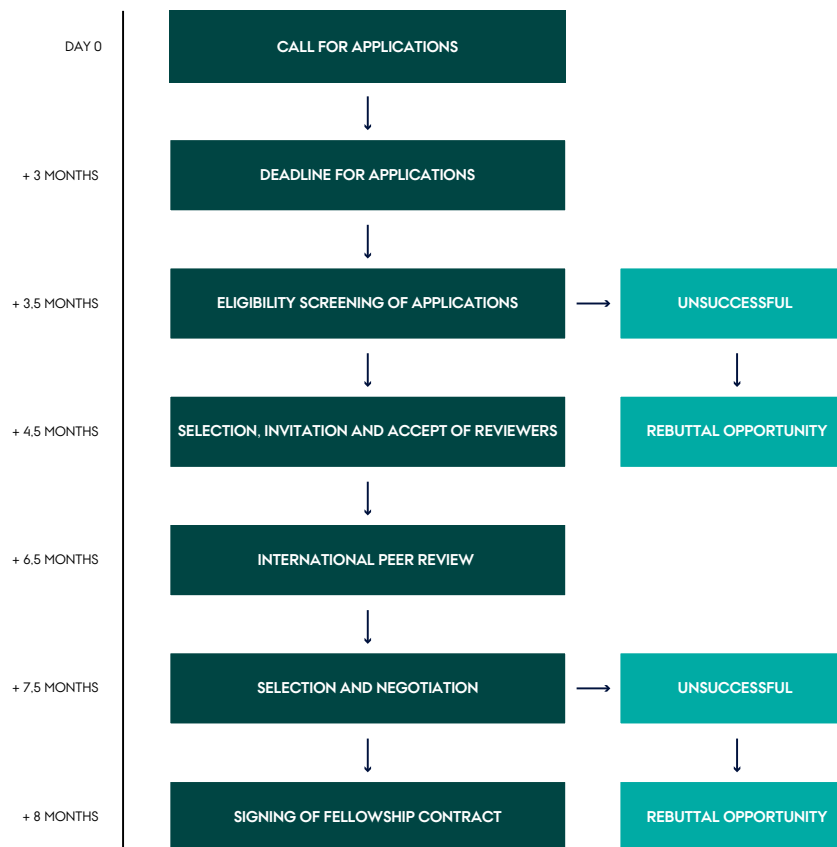

The fellowship programme also offers a range of career developing opportunities, a competitive salary and working conditions that offers a work-life balance. A fellowship includes funds for research travels and expenses as well as relocation services.

SELECTION PROCESS

The selection process will be in compliance with the European Charter for Researchers and the Code of Conduct for the Recruitment of Researchers. You will be selected through a triple peer review in an open, transparent and impartial selection process. A Selection Committee will perform the final selection based on the external peer reviews.
