

TO TELL A LIFE: SYMPOSIUM ON LIFE STORY PSYCHOLOGY IN HONOR OF TILMANN HABERMAS

Thursday, 29 September
13.30 – 14.00	Arrival/mingling
14.00 – 14.10	Annette Bohn	Welcome
14.10 – 14.50	Robyn Fivush	Conceptualizing coherence in personal narratives: How and why it matters for well-being
14.50 – 15.10	Susan Bluck	Getting a life: Twenty years later
15.10 – 15.40	BREAK
15.50 – 16.00	David Rubin	Tilman knows best how to interpret lives told
16.00 – 16.40	Christin Camia	Themes of agency and communion when remembering parents in middle adulthood
16.40 – 17.00	Anne Scharling Rasmussen	The life story that is not being told: The memories that people would erase from their life story

Friday, 30 September
08.00 – 08.30	Arrival/Morning coffee
08.30 – 09.10	Mélissa Allé	Life narratives and psychopathology: What life stories tell us about people experiencing mental disorders
09.10 – 09.30	Dorthe Berntsen	The mnemonic function of objects: How everyday objects can trigger life story memories
09.30 – 09.45	Short BREAK
09.45 – 10.25	David Pillemer &amp; Dorthe Thomsen	Vicarious memories and life stories promote successful adaptation and well being
10.25 – 10.45	Tabea Wolf	Biographies in the name of God: Exploring important autobiographical memories of members of Christian orders
10.45 – 11.05	BREAK
11.05 – 11.25	Ali Tekcan	Autobiographical Memories of Immigration by First and Second Generation of Balkan Immigrants
11.25 – 12.05	Annette Bohn	Cultural coherence and life story development
12.05 – 12.15	Tilman Habermas	Wrap up
12.15 – 13.00	LUNCH	