Welcome

Dear Participant,

The organizing group and the AIAS welcome you to this Conference in Memory of Dale T. Mortensen.

On January 9, 2014 Dale T Mortensen passed away. He was Board of Trustees Professor of Economics at Northwestern University and since 2006 maintained a joint affiliation at Aarhus University. In 2010, Dale T. Mortensen was awarded the Nobel Prize in Economic Sciences together with Peter Diamond and Christopher Pissarides, for their analysis of markets with search frictions. Dale has been a great inspiration for researchers around the world for decades, and at this time we want to honor his memory.
