

Dates, titles and speakers of seminars Spring 2022

February 2022

- 21 February 2022: Materials that Accelerate Chemical Reactions: From Chemical Reactors to the Interstellar Space by Mie Andersen, AIAS Fellow

March 2022

- 7 March 2022: Constitutional Democracy and the Corporation by David Ciepley, AIAS Fellow
- 21 March 2022: Food \(in\)security during pregnancy: Implications for public health by Luseadra McKerracher, AIAS Fellow
- 28 March 2022: Tips and tricks to a career in Denmark by invited speakers Anna Neuheimer and Shubiao Wu, former fellows and both associate professors at Aarhus Universit.

April 2022

- 4 April 2022: When Hierarchy Ceases to Enchant by Ward Keeler, AIAS Fellow
- 25 April 2022: Phthalate risks from food: Phthalate exposure risks from global food trade by Yanxia Zhang, AIAS Fellow

May 2022

- 2 May 2022: 'Literature's contribution to scientific knowledge: How some European novelists developed a new Darwinian view of human nature' by invited speaker Dario Maestriperi, Professor in Comparative Human Development, University of Chicago, USA
- 9 May 2022: 'Kinshipping in Solomon Islands: Divining the Past for a Future Theocracy' by Jaap Timmer, AIAS Fellow
- 16 May 2022: 'What can coronamusic tell us about the evolutionary functions of human musicality?' by Niels Christian Hansen, AIAS Fellow
- 23 May 2022: 'Random barycenters arising from Grassmann manifolds data', by Corina-Gabriela Ciobotaru, AIAS Fellow
- 30 May 2022: 'What it's like to be an international academic in Aarhus. Do's, don't, tips and tricks', by Heather Swanson, Associate Professor and former AIAS Associate

June 2022

- 13 June 2022: 'Culturalism: The Remaking of Race in the American Century' by Stefan Bargheer, AIAS Fellow

